2008 Burgundy En Primeur

Pristine, mineral whites and vibrant, aromatic reds: 2008 is a vintage that will appeal to lovers of classic Burgundy.

Lay & Wheeler has specialised in the fine wines of Burgundy for many years, fostering strong, long-standing relationships with great growers across the region, many of whom we have worked with for decades. The release of the latest vintage of Burgundy is always eagerly awaited and this year was no exception. Six members of the Lay & Wheeler team visited Burgundy during the Autumn to appraise the 2008 vintage and we are delighted with the range of wines that we are able to offer.

Vintage overview

It is not the first time in the last decade of writing offers for both Bordeaux and Burgundy, that we are able to say that the vintage was assisted by a providentially good September. Indeed, it appears to be becoming something of a pattern. The 2008 vintage in Burgundy commenced with cool and damp conditions during the Spring/Summer leading to poor flowering and slow development of the fruit.

However, by the middle of August conditions were beginning to improve, which allowed the grape skins to begin to ripen fully. This is crucial to the development of flavour and to the accumulation of ripe tannins in the red grapes. At this stage, the earlier problems with flowering yielded unexpected benefits, as lower than normal yields allowed the vines to bring their entire remaining crop to ripeness.

September provided a perfect end to the vintage. Sunny and settled weather, combined with a cool north wind, allowed the vineyards to dry out and the majority of the fruit to ripen completely. Most growers harvested in perfect conditions at the end of September. With a shaky start to the year and selection required at the sorting tables at the end, the yields at many domaines were considerably lower than usual, but the quality of the resultant wines is exceptional.

This turnaround is quite astonishing and few of the wines revealed any sign of the vintage's earlier tribulations. It was certainly a year for the vigneron, with work required in the vineyard throughout the year, as well as more strict selection of the fruit at the winery during harvest. However, for those that were able to work through the trials of the vintage, the hard work has been more than worth the effort. We are delighted to be able to show an impressive range of wines, which demonstrate classic Burgundian elegance, appealing ripeness and vibrant, yet balanced, acidity.

The wines

There are similarities between this 2008 Burgundy vintage and the 2008 Bordeaux vintage that we offered last June. The wines have a similar profile, shaped by a cool summer and saved by the warm

Autumn. This will be a vintage to be savoured by Burgundy lovers; one in which the best domaines have allowed each appellation to express itself – surely the essence of this great wine region.

White wines

There is an obvious similarity between the white wines of 2008 and those of 2007, yet there is more evident richness and substance to the 2008s, offset by the same lively acidity that had us enthusing about 2007s. The characteristics of the individual vineyards and terroirs are clear to read and the cool summer delivered pristine fruit quality. There is a combination of purity and charm about the 2008 whites, which show floral notes, hallmark grapefruit acidity and the plumpness and balance only found in top Chardonnay.

Red wines

As for the reds, we needed to be selective in what we proposed for this offer, as there was some variation, largely brought about by harvest date. However, the best have the purity of fruit we associated with 2007 and perhaps 2001, allied to some of the softness and approachability of a vintage such as 2000. They are wines that will prove immensely appealing in their youth and yet will reward mid-term cellaring. They are pure, refined, vibrant styles with good substance, plumper than 2007 with perhaps more backbone than 2000.

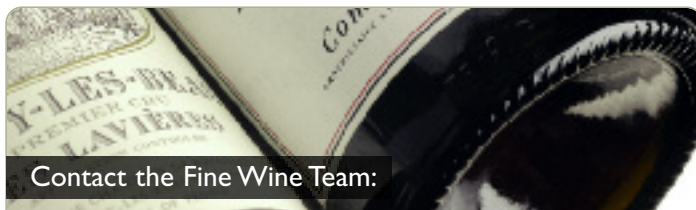

Worldwide demand for fine Burgundy

Burgundy is riding on a tide of popularity and demand for its wines is at unprecedented levels, relative to supply. The consistent quality, achieved by the region's talented and conscientious vigneron, has fed this demand, dispelling doubts concerning the hazards of buying fine Burgundy en primeur. While prices have risen steadily, Burgundy does not see the same massive fluctuations that are observed in the release prices of fine Bordeaux.

Production levels are frequently tiny and growers each often own just a few rows in any important vineyard. In such cases, our case allowance may be counted in single figures and the scarcest wines can be subject to allocation. Where allocation is required, our policy is to offer the wines first to customers buying a spread of other wines at all price levels. Wines that may be subject to this allocation process have been marked with an asterisk **.

The secondary market for Burgundy is small and mature examples of the best wines rarely come back on sale. To be sure of securing the wines that you want, we recommend buying en primeur.

Domaine de l'Arlot

Domaine de l'Arlot began its renaissance in 1987 when it was purchased by the insurance group AXA, in partnership with Jean-Pierre de Smet, who became the manager of the estate. Olivier Leriche has guided the resurgence of the property with great success since 2006, introducing bio-dynamic principles, reducing yields and making very severe grape selection at harvest time. The accent with the Arlot wines is on complexity, delicacy and underlying, rather than overt, power.

Red Wines

2008 Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru Le Petit Arlot, Domaine de l'Arlot

B001 Case of 12 bottles
£210 in bond

Produced from young vines within the Clos de l'Arlot vineyard, this is beautifully coloured vibrant Pinot Noir that will provide almost immediate drinking. Supple raspberry and cherry fruit, with a rich, juicy texture and beautifully proportioned. 2012-2016

2008 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru Clos des Forêts St-Georges, Domaine de l'Arlot

B002 Case of 12 bottles
£375 in bond

The flagship wine of this brilliant estate, from their huge seven hectare vineyard. Knockout nose of cherry liqueur, smoked earth and new oak. 2008 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Les Suchots, Domaine de l'Arlot

B003 Case of 12 bottles

Domaine Arlaud

Cyprien Arlaud took over the winemaking from his father in 1998 at this 15 hectare domaine, based in Morey-St-Denis. Cyprien's brother Romain is also now ensconced at the estate whilst sister Bertille is one of the increasing number of Burgundian vignerons employing horses to work the vineyards of the Côte.

Red Wines

2008 Morey-St-Denis 1er Cru Aux Cheseaux, Domaine Arlaud

B005 Case of 12 bottles
£317 in bond

The 1er Cru Aux Cheseaux vineyard is towards the north of Morey, above Charmes. This has a cool and elegant feel to it, with a very perfumed nose of black cherry and spice, supple tannins and a sense of depth and balance. This is easily the best 1er cru we tasted at Arlaud. 2012-2017

2008 Charmes-Chambertin Grand Cru, Domaine Arlaud

B006 Case of 6 bottles
£258 in bond

Produced from a large single parcel, situated just below Latricières. This has a lovely top-note of spring flowers, wild strawberries and truffle. On the palate there is a smoky, animal edge. Texturally soft, with a ripe structure and a long complex finish. 2013-2019

Domaine Arnoux-Lachaux

A famous 12 hectare estate, of which winemaker and current custodian is Pascal Lachaux, son-in-law of Robert Arnoux who passed away in 1995. The wines epitomise Pinot Noir in its most glorious and immaculately precise form. There is no doubt that this cellar produces some of the most outstanding wines of the Côte.

Red Wines

2008 Bourgogne Pinot Fin, Arnoux-Lachaux
B016 Case of 12 bottles
£135 in bond

Produced from fruit grown in and around Nuits-St-George, Vosne-Romanée and Chambolle-Musigny, this is a Bourgogne Rouge with fantastic pedigree. Supple attractive style with a core of ripe raspberry fruit, ripe tannins and intelligent use of oak, this has lovely weight and balance for a wine at this level. 2011-2015

2008 Chambolle-Musigny, Arnoux-Lachaux
B017 Case of 12 bottles
£330 in bond

Silky and pure, this is everything one would want in a glass of Chambolle. Open and complicated nose of hedgerow fruit, spicy oak and violet. The palate is plump and pretty, with good intensity and matière. Beautiful balance - will be approachable from a young age. 2012-2016

2008 Vosne-Romanée, Arnoux-Lachaux
B018 Case of 12 bottles
£312 in bond

Winemaker Pascal Lachaux has elevated the quality at this well known and easy to find domaine so that he is now producing 1st division wines from his 12 hectare property. His Vosne villages is his signature wine and is made in the same way as the Grand Crus. With layers of bramble fruit and spicy oak, this is a harmonious, silky wine and terrific value. 2012-2017

2008 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Les Chaumes, Arnoux-Lachaux
B019 Case of 6 bottles
£279 in bond

Enticing nose of chocolate-coated cherries, spice and roses. Effortless on the palate, with real breadth and appeal at this early stage. Lovely, lifted floral character and polish from the oak, balanced by a tight frame of acid. Very long and tempting. 2012-2018

"Bright and fresh and pure with dryness on the finish but not drying or tough. Real energy and long-term ageability...17.5" Jancis Robinson MW, Purple Pages

2008 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Reignots, Arnoux-Lachaux
B020 Case of 6 bottles
£438 in bond

One of the finest vineyards in Vosne, this is superb. With an almost jammy intensity, it has real depth and concentration, lots of smoky black fruits and a spine of fresh minerality and tannin. Should keep well and is not far from Grand Cru quality. 2013-2019

2008 Nuits-St-Georges Les Poisets, Arnoux-Lachaux
B021 Case of 12 bottles
£330 in bond

Produced from 70 year-old-vines, which were affected by millerandage in 2008; something many growers see as a positive as it leads to small, concentrated berries. Open and expressive on the nose, with crushed raspberry, cherry and vanilla. Like all Pascal's wines, it is solid with a rich texture and intelligently used expensive new oak. Only nine barrels produced in 2008. 2012-2018

2008 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru Les Procès, Arnoux-Lachaux
B022 Case of 6 bottles
£228 in bond

A little known vineyard in the southern part of Nuits-St Georges, where the soil is lighter and stony. This produces a lively wine with a fine tannic structure. Lovely fragrance on the nose with ripe strawberry, violet and spice. The palate is feminine and persistent, with flavours and structure building to a long, complex and balanced finish. 2012-2018

Consultant Recommendations

Katherine Robinson recommends:

Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Craipillot, Humbert Frères B153
£519 - 12bts in bond

These brothers make wines that are incredibly stylish, with stunning purity of fruit and outstanding transparency. This particular wine is sourced from 65+ year old vines, a fact which really comes through in this beautifully balanced 1er Cru.

Vosne-Romanée, Georges Mugneret-Gibourg B231
£294 - 12bts in bond

The Mugneret sisters make wines that are very true to their terroir and this elegant Vosne is no exception. It shows perfect balance with a freshening vein of acidity and fine, silky tannins. This exhibits exceptional quality at a reasonable price.

Domaine Ballot-Millot

The youthful Charles Ballot took over from his father at this 12 hectare domaine in 2002, triggering greater interest in the wines made here. Strict pruning in the vineyards ensures lower yields and greater concentration and the winemaking skill is such that the resultant wines are poised and elegant, displaying a delightful lightness of touch.

White Wines

2008 Meursault Les Narvaux, Domaine Ballot-Millot
B030 Case of 12 bottles
£252 in bond

The Narvaux really impressed with its fine meld of honeyed citrus, gentle toast and discreet mineral nature. Open and appealing, very flattering style with fine length. 2011-2015

2008 Meursault 1er Cru Charmes, Domaine Ballot-Millot
B031 Case of 12 bottles
£420 in bond

Showing the classic Charmes' characters of volume and restraint, more viscous in nature with characters of toasted wheat, crisp citrus fruit -this is an elegant, lingering example with fine potential. 2011-2017

2008 Meursault 1er Cru Genevrières, Domaine Ballot-Millot
B032 Case of 12 bottles
£429 in bond

The gem within the Ballot-Millot holdings, a very feminine and mineral-styled Genevrières. Very complete with fine balance, ample toast and citrus with leesy notes. A driven and focused style - very fine. 2011-2017

2008 Meursault 1er Cru Perrières, Domaine Ballot-Millot
B033 Case of 12 bottles
£456 in bond

More broad-shouldered, with good density to its toasty citrus fruit. There is a more exotic, bold ripe fruit here, with a touch of gingery spice. Precise and persistent. 2011-2016

Red Wine

2008 Beaune 1er Cru Epenottes, Domaine Ballot-Millot
B034 Case of 12 bottles
£252 in bond

The tremendous appeal of this Beaune owes much to old vines. Sweet, ripe vibrant berry and cherry fruits with a creamy accent, very pure and fragrant. Appealing early drinking Pinot with plenty of charm. 2011-2015

Domaine Louis Boillot

Husband of Chambolle-Musigny star Ghislaine Barthod, Louis Boillot has only relatively recently taken control of his own vineyards, which include holdings in Volnay, Pommard and Nuits-St-Georges. The grapes are hand-picked and Louis combines traditional wine-making practices with the application of modern day knowledge to create wines which are carefully crafted to reflect the typicity of their communes.

Red Wines

2008 Volnay 1er Cru Les Brouillards, Louis Boillot
B040 Case of 12 bottles
£399 in bond

Another old vine (60 years) cuvée with terrific concentration and depth coupled with real elegance. Fresh raspberry and mint on the nose with a spicy almost liquorice note, with thick texture and grainy tannic structure. This has been made with great attention to detail. Classic Volnay for the cellar. 2011-2016

2008 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru Les Pruliers, Louis Boillot
B041 Case of 12 bottles
£498 in bond

Les Pruliers seemed to do particularly well in 2008 and we tasted some excellent examples. From very old vines of 80+ years, this has an almost kirsch-like character. Ripe and exotic, more Vosne than Nuits St Georges! The palate has dense black, mineral fruit, with freshness and some new oak. 2012-2018

Nick Dagley recommends:

2008 St-Aubin 1er Cru Les Frionnes, Hubert Lamy B186
£198 - 12bts in bond

This has everything that is good about this vintage: grapefruit, plump and approachable with real verve, coupled to a more serious mineral edge. In my opinion the best domaine in St-Aubin. If they were situated in Puligny, I suspect the wines would be of similar quality and twice the price!

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Chenevottes, Domaine Philippe Colin B096
£342 - 12bts in bond

From one of the finest sites in Chassagne this is rich, nutty with notes of almond oil and fresh green fruit. It should develop into something truly special in the bottle. Philippe's 2008s were some of the best white wines we tasted.

Burgundy 2008

En primeur

Domaine J-M Boillot

The grandson of the famed Etienne Sauzet, Jean-Marc Boillot owns 11 hectares of vines, spread across the Côte de Beaune, including holdings in Puligny-Montrachet that were previously owned by Domaine Etienne Sauzet. This inheritance and pedigree comes through in his wines, which are of the highest quality. His Puligny-Montrachet are a delight; rich and concentrated, while remaining expressive of the varied terroirs from which they come.

White Wines

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Champ Canet, Domaine J-M Boillot

B044 Case of 12 bottles

£468 in bond

Rich and tropical in nature, with floral notes on the nose. On the palate, this is round and complete, broad in the mouth, with apricot fruit characters. Freshening acidity and a sense of purity make this a stylish wine. 2011-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Referts, Domaine J-M Boillot

B045 Case of 12 bottles

£468 in bond

Bold and full-bodied, this is full of spicy, toasty characters and ripe citrus notes. Tropical nuances are allied with subtle oak and a smoky minerality, giving this a sense of poise and balance. 2011-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Combettes, Domaine J-M Boillot **

B046 Case of 12 bottles

£576 in bond

The ripe tropical notes characteristic of Boillot's style are to the fore in this wine, with papaya and apricot coming through on both the nose and palate. However, a zip of citrus acidity and a touch of minerality lend some structure and backbone, making this a highly appealing wine. 2012-2017

"Lots of guts on the palate. Quite showy but a flattering drink that certainly isn't sweet in any New World way... 17.5" Jancis Robinson MW, Purple Pages

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru La Truffière, Domaine J-M Boillot **

B047 Case of 12 bottles

£654 in bond

Much more restrained on the nose, with a real sense of there being great power and depth that are currently held at bay by a flinty minerality. There are hints at attractive white flower and peach characters and a fine vein of grapefruit acidity, imparting a real sense of elegance. 2012-2017

Red Wine

2008 2008 Beaune 1er Cru Les Epenottes, Domaine J-M Boillot

B048 Case of 12 bottles

£240 in bond

Lovely, vibrant wine with all the freshness and juicy fruit of this vintage. With crystalline red fruit and a fine, balancing structure, this is classy and for relatively early drinking. A charming wine, with a sweet core of raspberry fruit and a lick of toasty new oak. 2011-2016

Domaine Michel Bouzereau

Ten generations of the Bouzereau family have tended vines in Meursault and neighbouring Puligny, the most recent of which is Jean-Baptiste, Michel's son who has recently joined his father. In the last 10 years the domaine has moved towards an organic approach for its 32 individual plots, working with ploughs and abandoning chemical treatments where possible. This traditional approach has brought dividends in the form of expressive, well-defined wines which attract an enthusiastic following.

White Wines

2008 Bourgogne Aligoté, Michel Bouzereau

B050 Case of 12 bottles

£69 in bond

Made from the fruit of 70 year old vines, this has a leesy, almost Champagne-like touch on the nose. Lively, fresh and appealing on the palate, with a touch of smokiness. Linear in style, with bright, freshening acidity. 2011-2014

2008 Meursault Le Limozin, Michel Bouzereau

B051 Case of 12 bottles

£255 in bond

The Le Limozin vineyards are adjacent to Les Genevrières, on the Puligny-Montrachet side of Meursault. This is appealing and elegant, with a ripe, honeyed citrus touch. Precise and elegant, with a persistent and mouthwatering finish. Very refined for a villages style. 2011-2014

2008 Meursault 1er Cru Les Genevrières, Michel Bouzereau

B052 Case of 12 bottles

£387 in bond

Genevrières is said to be most like Puligny-Montrachet in style of all the Meursault sites. Golden-hued, this has a restrained leesy quality on the nose, along with lifted citrus aromas. Broad on the palate, with a stony minerality, this is very citrus in nature with a real zip of lemon on the long and persistent finish. Impressive. 2012-2017

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Champs-Gains, Michel Bouzereau

B053 Case of 12 bottles

£384 in bond

This has a touch of champagne leesiness on the nose, bringing notes of toast and nuts. On the palate, this has an appealing nature, with ripe citrus fruit characters. Layered and rich, yet clean-cut. Malolactic fermentation was not fully complete at the time of tasting, yet this was evidently an excellent work in progress. 2011-2015

"Aromatic and orangey with a delicate smoky/spicy oak overlay. Much richer than many in this vintage, to keep the acid in balance. Long and fresh and good concentration, especially in the context of the vintage... 17.5" Julia Harding MW, Purple Pages

Domaine Louis Carillon

Many Burgundian domaines are steeped in history but few can claim to have produced wine since 1653. Lay & Wheeler's connection to the property dates back to 1981, the year Jacques Carillon joined his father in the family business. One of the features of the estate's wines is its sparing use of new wood. For example the regular Puligny is aged in just 15% new casks, whilst for the Premiers Crus 20% new oak is utilised to preserve important floral notes in the wines.

White Wines

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet, Louis Carillon

B055 Case of 12 bottles

price to be confirmed (estimated price: £225-£250)

Made from young vines from 1er Cru Macharelles. More restrained on the nose than the Puligny villages at this early stage. With white peach and spice, this is a broader wine with more gusto. The Carillons treat all their wines with equal respect and care and it shows. Should be brilliant value for money. 2011-2014

2008 Puligny-Montrachet, Louis Carillon

B056 Case of 12 bottles

price to be confirmed (estimated price: £230-£255)

As ever, fine and stylish with everything in perfect balance. Only 15% new oak on the villages. Lovely grippy, greengage fruit, this is textbook stuff! 2012-2015

PLEASE ENQUIRE FOR AVAILABILITIES OF 1er Cru

Richard O'Mahony recommends:

2008 Meursault Le Limozin, Michel Bouzereau B051

£255 - 12bts in bond

The Limozin lieu-dit adjoins Premier Cru Genevrières, which itself so often epitomises Meursault in all its lacy elegance and filigree structure. Bouzereau has consistently produced taut, focused, mineral-driven Meursault and their 2008s excel for purity and intensity of gently nutty fruit and mineral freshness.

Vosne-Romanee 1er Cru, Les Suchots, Maison Roche de Bellene

B285 £222 - 6 bts in bond

Nicolas Potel has gained a justifiably strong reputation in a short number of years. Now producing wine under his own Roche de Bellene label he has an incredible range of wines, all of typically high quality, due to Nicolas' loyal relationships in the region. Les Suchots is a large and well-sited Premier Cru, demonstrating why the wines of this village are often regarded as the holy grail of Red Burgundy.

Domaine Chandon de Briailles

Domaine Chandon de Briailles is situated in a fine house right in the centre of the village of Savigny-Lès Beaune. The domaine has a large holding of 13ha or so, encompassing top sites in Savigny itself, Pernand-Vergelesses and three separate parcels of Grand Cru Corton. Jointly run by Nadine de Nicolay and her daughter Claude Nicolay-Drouhin, the property has seen recent rejuvenation, which has made the domaine one of the best addresses in the village.

Red Wines

2008 Savigny-Lès-Beaune Aux Fourneaux, Chandon de Briailles

B071 Case of 12 bottles

£168 in bond

Pale in the glass with a pink hue. Elegant, with an orange peel and Christmas spice note and a sweet sense of ripeness. A very attractive style which shows some weight on the palate a lifted, floral finish. 2011-2014

2008 Savigny-Lès-Beaune 1er Cru Les Lavières, Chandon de Briailles

B072 Case of 12 bottles

£198 in bond

More spice on the nose whilst retaining a floral elegance. More marked acidity and sour cherry fruit, with a touch of clove spice on the mineral finish. 2011-2016

Andrew Caslin recommends:

2008 Beaune 1er Cru Les Sizies, Domaine de Montille B203

£249 - 12bts in bond

I have always been an admirer of the wines of the Domaine de Montille and, now that Etienne has been in charge for a few years, the wines are even better: The 2008 Beaune 1er cru Les Sizies is almost their least expensive red, but in terms of value and quality it is near the top.

2008 Bourgogne Blanc Cuvée Oligocène, Patrick Javillier B160

£138 - 12bts in bond

There is no shortage of fine white wines to choose from in 2008, but if you are looking for good quality allied to value, then your first port of call should be this Bourgogne Blanc from Patrick Javillier. Sourced from a single vineyard outside the Meursault AC, but on the same soil, this is consistently as fine as many a village Meursault from a lesser producer:

Domaine Philippe Chavy

Philippe Chavy is one of several with the same family name located in the village of Puligny. Together with his wife Graziella, Philippe runs an eight hectare estate whose best vineyards are in the communes of Puligny-Montrachet and Meursault. Chavy has reverted to natural techniques, employing horses to plough the land, hand-harvesting and eschewing the use of pesticides and herbicides.

White Wines

2008 Meursault 1er Cru Les Charmes, Philippe Chavy

B080 Case of 12 bottles

£336 in bond

Restrained, yet ripe and layered, with a lovely weight. Quite showy, this has an almost honeyed, rich character; yet retains a cool sense of purity through well-integrated minerality. Finely-tuned, with good acidity, this has a long and elegant finish. 2011-2015

2008 Puligny-Montrachet Les Corvées des Vignes, Philippe Chavy

B081 Case of 12 bottles

£267 in bond

Almost a little herbal on the nose, this is ripe and mouth-filling, with a honeyed density on the palate. Quite a weighty style, yet poised, with zesty acidity and a rich, intense finish. 2011-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet Rue Rousseau, Philippe Chavy

B082 Case of 12 bottles

£324 in bond

Ripe and restrained, with yellow plum characters. Intense and refined, this has layers of mouth-watering fruit and a touch of caramel, lending it a broad and dense nature. Finely-tuned, this has a good cut of acidity and a real sense of drive. 2011-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières, Philippe Chavy

B083 Case of 12 bottles

£438 in bond

Restrained and mineral, with an, almost creamy, citrus accent. Fine-tuned and layered, with lovely density and impressive depth. Poised and elegant, this has an impressive finish. 2012-2018

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Pucelles, Philippe Chavy **

B084 Case of 12 bottles

£477 in bond

Domaine Bruno Colin

Bruno Colin has successfully launched his own domaine comprising a proportion of the former Colin-Deléger estate that was divided between Michel Colin and his two sons on their father's semi-retirement. The Chassagne-Montrachet appellation forms the lion's share of Bruno's estate, and Bruno has fast established a reputation for sleek, modern wines.

B096 Case of 12 bottles

£342 in bond

From a parcel of 70 year old vines this was far and away the finest Chassagne we tasted at this excellent domaine. A multi-dimensional nose of white peach, smoky notes and new oak gives way to a layered and complex palate with hidden depths and bags of potential. 2011-2017

Domaine Colin-Deléger

A highly respected address in Chassagne-Montrachet which has, since 2004, been subdivided with shares granted to Michel Colin's two sons. Michel himself is the third generation of his family to make wines in Chassagne and in his more-than-competent hands, the Colin-Deléger domaine has become renowned for its elegant whites, rising up to Grand Cru level. Low yields and traditional vinification create concentrated and complex wines that age well.

White Wines

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru En Remilly, Colin-Deléger

B099 Case of 12 bottles

£326 in bond

The nose is floral nose, with hints of lime and grapefruit. Fat, rich and mouthcoating texture, with a balancing acidity and toasty oak. Great Chassagne, demonstrating the quality of the 2008 vintage in this village. 2012-2016

Domaine Darviot-Perrin

With a palpable dedication to detail, the unassuming team of Didier and Geneviève Darviot have come to be regarded as producing some of Burgundy's finest wines. A tasting at the domaine's immaculate Monthelie cellar is a highlight of our visits to the Côte d'Or. Impressive in every vintage, glorious flavour nuances develop in Darviot-Perrin wines as they mature. Never excessively opulent or extracted, these are wines for discerning burgundy buyers, wines that are the epitome of grace, purity and freshness.

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Blanchots-Dessus, Darviot-Perrin

B101 Case of 12 bottles

£528 in bond

There is a mineral aspect to the nose, which also has hints of white flowers. While there is a dense nature to the palate, it is not at all heavy; citrus and white peach characters give a juicy touch and a stony minerality gives structure. The finish is long and lingering and decidedly mineral. 2012-2018

Domaine Fontaine-Gagnard

Domaine Fontaine-Gagnard is one of the most important in Chassagne-Montrachet, not least in terms of its size and in the quality it achieves. Richard Fontaine married Laurence Gagnard in the early 1980s and took on part of the Gagnard-Delagrangé estate. It remains very much a family affair; with Richard working alongside his brother-in-law and Laurence closely involved with the day to day running of the estate. Intense and concentrated with precision, superb minerality and focused flavours, wonderful reflections of terroir.

White Wines

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet, Domaine Fontaine-Gagnard

B110 Case of 12 bottles

Richard Fontaine makes excellent Chassagne-Montrachet and his villages wine is often the equal of his competitors' Premier Crus. There is a trace of oak on the nose but the palate is clean and fresh. Good fruit. Quite expansive and finely balanced. This has good texture and a zesty finish. Excellent village Chassagne-Montrachet. 2011-2015

Domaine Jean Grivot

One of the region's leading talents, Etienne Grivot's wines are some of the most sought-after in the Côte de Nuits. The domaine owns 15 hectares of mature vines between Chambolle-Musigny and Nuits-St-Georges, with substantial holdings of Clos de Vougeot, Echézeaux and Richebourg. Etienne aims for youthful approachability and freshness in the domaine's wines yet retaining impressive ability to age. A hands-on, dedicated vigneron, Etienne devotes equal care to the vineyard as to the cellar.

Domaine Michel Gros

Every cuvée in this cellar is benchmark in the context of both vintage and appellation. From Hautes-Côtes-de-Nuits through villages and Premier Cru wines (including the estate's supreme monopole Clos des Réas) to an outstanding Clos de Vougeot, the wines display the finest qualities. The harmony, complexity and seamless texture of these wines are something that one encounters but rarely, a fact that is borne out by the accolades heaped upon the domaine.

2008 Vosne-Romanée, Domaine Michel Gros

B144 Case of 12 bottles

£294 in bond

Made from three parcels surrounding Vosne-Romanée, all on limestone soils. An intense colour in the glass with an incense and spice character on the nose. Bursting with fruit on the palate with a good concentration to the berries and an elegant, mineral finish. Benchmark villages Vosne. 2012-2018

2008 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Brulées, Domaine Michel Gros **

B145 Case of 6 bottles

£276 in bond

A well-situated vineyard which is stylistically similar to Richebourg. Lifted red berry fruits balance with a hint of vanillin with an almost creamy nature. Tannins are firm but the fruit concentration carries the oak beautifully. A touch of Grand Cru elegance. 2013-2019

2008 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Clos de Réas, Michel Gros **

B146 Case of 6 bottles

£318 in bond

A monopole wine, which is part aged in new oak. There is a woodsmoke character on the nose which gives way to cherry and dark berry fruit. Good substance and concentration on the palate. A full bodied example, with substance and concentration. Very balanced with a fine, long finish. 2013-2019

Domaine Humbert Frères

Beneath Domaine Humbert's functional cuverie lies a traditional cellar that contains some of the most beautifully made wines in Gevrey-Chambertin. The domaine owns approximately six hectares of villages and Premier Cru Gevrey plus a parcel of Grand Cru Charmes-Chambertin. Brothers Frédéric and Emmanuel (Manou) Humbert are built like prop forwards, yet their wines display glorious elegance and finesse, wines that are fruit-driven without the merest hint of oak dominance.

Red Wines

2008 Gevrey-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Humbert Frères

B151 Case of 12 bottles

£198 in bond

A serious and weighty wine with crunchy raspberry fruit, well integrated spicy oak, fresh acidity and fine-grained, ripe tannins. This is a domaine with a growing reputation, which we believe is improving with each passing vintage. Manou Humbert is producing stylish, serious wines which will age well. 2012-2018

2008 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Poissenots, Humbert Frères

B152 Case of 12 bottles

£462 in bond

The Humberts are one of two significant proprietors owning 40% of this vineyard which lies adjacent to Estournelles-St-Jacques. Elegant and restrained on the nose with bright, red berry fruit to the fore. A freshening acidity cuts through the palate and gives tension and nervosité to the complex and intense flavours. The tannins are a little chewier here making this slightly sterner in style. 2013-2018

2008 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Craipillot, Humbert Frères

B153 Case of 12 bottles

£519 in bond

A delightful 60+ year old plot lying 100 metres equidistant between Mazis-Chambertin and Lavaux-Saint-Jacques. Vibrant and full of life. This has ripe, red cherry fruit and a wet stone minerality on the attack following through to an intense and concentrated core of fruit on the mid palate. Crisp acidity and perfectly interwoven tannins give support and structure to this punchy 1er Cru. The minerality persists from the beginning through to the finish. 2013-2018

2008 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru La Petite Chapelle, Humbert Frères

B154 Case of 12 bottles

£519 in bond

A small old vine parcel very close to the Grand Cru vineyards of Mazis-Chambertin and Chapelle-Chambertin. A highly attractive nose of black cherry fruit, cloves and violets leap from the glass. The silky tannins and fleshy, pure fruit give this a seamless quality making this extremely flattering in youth. There is, however, the latent power and backbone to carry this through to the mid term. The lingering finish is one of purity and grace. 2012-2017

Domaine Patrick Javillier

The indefatigable Patrick Javillier produces a stunning range of Meursaults revealing complexity and harmony across the spectrum. Patrick's Cuvée Oligocène is in a totally different league from regular Bourgogne Blanc. It is grown on similar terrain to Premiers Crus and in blind tastings it is frequently believed to be seriously good Meursault.

White Wines

2008 Bourgogne Blanc Cuvée Oligocène, Patrick Javillier

2008 Meursault Les Clousots, Patrick Javillier

B162 Case of 12 bottles

£282 in bond

Produced with fruit from the vineyards of Les Clous and Crotots. Ripe and appealing, with a decent weight, especially for its level. Immediately appealing, there is a roundness to this, but also good acidity and a sense of purity and poise. 2011-2017

2008 Meursault Tête de Murger, Patrick Javillier

B163 Case of 12 bottles

£420 in bond

Made from a blend of Casse-Tête and Les-Murgers. Broader and more expressive, with rich, ripe orangey fruit. There is good weight and an almost tropical accent to the fruit, but a lovely fresh note and a zippy acidity bring balance and focus. 2011-2018

2008 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru, Patrick Javillier **

B164 Case of 6 bottles

£349 in bond

Lively and fresh, with a fine cut and drive. More voluminous than in 2007, with a rich note. This is finely-tuned, with a lovely acidity and a stony minerality that carries through onto the very long finish. This requires some patience. 2012-2019

"Not much nose but very sleek and concentrated. Quite a bit of sweetness on the front palate but lovely texture and composition. Not the biggest Corton-Charlemagne but no disappointment... 17.5" Jancis Robinson MW, Purple Pages

Domaine Lamarche

Domaine Lamarche has a long history in Burgundy, with the family able to trace back their origins in Vosne-Romanée to 1740. The estate itself was founded at the beginning of the twentieth century and is now managed by François Lamarche along with his wife Marie-Blanche, their children and various other relatives. They produce subtle and expressive Vosne-Romanées, which are accessible while young, though do have capacity for longevity.

Red Wines

2008 Bourgogne Hautes-Côtes de Nuits, Domaine Lamarche

B171 Case of 12 bottles

£144 in bond

A lifted nose of cranberry and fresh raspberry, with a smoky edge. The palate has real intensity and depth with a zip of acidity. Long spicy finish and a generous texture. Should prove excellent value. 2011-2017

2008 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Crus Les Cras, Domaine Lamarche **

B172 Case of 6 bottles

£297 in bond

This is a fantastically located vineyard next to the excellent 1er Cru of Boudots. Denser than the Vosne, with a stony Nuits character: Spicy cherries on the nose, with firm, abundant tannins, liquorice and mineral black fruit on the palate. Stylish and firm with real presence, a keeper with an oaky finish. 2014-2020

Domaine des Lambrays

Thierry Brouin's experience as winemaker at Domaine des Lambrays extends for over 20 years. His style of vinification results in wines that express refinement and precision, wines that are made for the Burgundy connoisseur. The property is best known for its elegant Clos des Lambrays, a nine hectare Grand Cru in the heart of Morey-St-Denis.

Red Wines

2008 Morey-St-Denis 1er Cru Les Loups, Domaine des Lambrays

B180 Case of 12 bottles

£459 in bond

An interesting 1er Cru, half of which is from two vineyards, Le Village and La Riotte, and the remainder from the young vines of the Grand Cru. The assemblage can vary, dependent upon vintage conditions. This again has good depth of colour and some minerality on the nose. Savoury, but richer than the villages, as you would expect. There is structure, but the tannins are already soft and accessible. There is good detail in this wine and it will drink well young. 2011-2016

2008 Clos des Lambrays Grand Cru, Domaine des Lambrays

B181 Case of 6 bottles

£378 in bond

Made from two large parcels of which two thirds is from 45 year old vines. The nose has a degree of opulence and the colour is deep in the glass. The fruit is ripe and concentrated and the acidity is more elevated. Rounded and powerful, fresh and clean, the tannins are supple, which makes it already appealing, although the structure is there for cellaring. 2012-2018

En primeur

Domaine Hubert Lamy

Little did we realise when Olivier spent several weeks working a stage at Lay & Wheeler early in the 1990s that he would become one of the star performers of the southern Côte de Beaune. Following his father Hubert's retirement, he heads up the winemaking at his family's impeccable St-Aubin domaine and has steered the estate towards a fully organic approach. Olivier's wines are in incredible demand - and rightly so - and there are no better Côte de Beaune at these reasonable prices.

B188 Case of 12 bottles

£168 in bond

Bright, cherry red fruit. Refined in nature, with silky-fine tannins and vibrant cherry and raspberry fruit. This is a highly appealing style, yet retains a finely-tuned character. 2011-2016

Olivier Leflaive Frères

One of the most respected names in Burgundy, Olivier Leflaive is synonymous with wines of consistently fine quality. Cousin to Anne-Claude Leflaive of Domaine Leflaive, Olivier has always done more than simply buy in young wine from contracted growers or domaines to age in his own cellars. As much a producer in his own right, he set out from the start to buy grapes from selected sources in order to command the winemaking process from the moment of harvest.

White Wines

2008 Meursault Les Tillets, Olivier Leflaive

B189A Case of 12 bottles

£198 in bond

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru La Grande Montagne, Olivier Leflaive

B189B Case of 12 bottles

£297 in bond

Bold on the nose, with scents of ripe grapefruit and peach. On the palate this is rich and opulent, though not lacking in finesse. Warm, almost tropical fruits are to the fore, however a citrus zip of acidity and mineral structure create a sense of balance. 2011-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet Les Enseignères, Olivier Leflaive

B189C Case of 12 bottles

£219 in bond

Scented and attractive pear and apple fruit comes through on the nose. On the palate, this is refined, with understated white fruit characters and a mineral backbone. A touch of woodsmoke on the finish gives this a subtle complexity. 2011-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Champ Gain, Olivier Leflaive

B189D Case of 12 bottles

£327 in bond

Drawn from the cooler vineyard site of Champ Gain, this is crisp and pure on the nose, with crunchy apple fruit and zesty citrus to the fore. On the palate, it is poised and balanced, with structural minerality, ripe orchard fruit and a delicious freshness. 2012-2016

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières, Olivier Leflaive

B189F Case of 12 bottles

£447 in bond

One of the best known parcels of vineyard in Puligny, Folatières produces wines that tend towards the richer nature of the Grand Crus. This is refined on the nose, with subtle toasted notes and creamy coated citrus fruit coming through. On the palate this is intense and mouthfilling, with a steely minerality providing a structural backbone to the ripe citrus fruit. Excellent. 2012-1017

2008 Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru, Olivier Leflaive

B189G Case of 6 bottles

£558 in bond

Rich, though refined, this has buttery apple fruit to the fore on the nose and a touch of spice. On the palate this is creamy and mouthfilling, yet with a delightful freshness that prevents this becoming cloying or at all fat. There is stony minerality and a smoky note, which add complexity, and this finishes very long and pure. 2013-2018

Domaine Méo-Camuzet

Domaine Méo-Camuzet was founded at the beginning of the last century and, until the mid 1980s, most of the wine was sold off to various négociants. Now managed by Jean Nicholas Méo and Christian Faurois, the domaine produces some of the finest wines of the Côte d'Or, which reflect the characteristics of their fine terroirs and vineyards.

Red Wines

2008 Marsannay, Méo-Camuzet Frère et Soeurs

B192 Case of 12 bottles

Freshness and structure give a wine of great balance and demonstrates the potential of this village in the right hands. On the palate, this has crunchy blue and black fruit, with a slatey, mineral edge, vibrant acidity and fine tannins. Delicious. 2012-2017

2008 Nuits-Saint-Georges aux Boudots, Domaine Méo-Camuzet

B194 Case of 6 bottles

£414 in bond

Boudots is as Vosne as Nuits-St-Georges gets: round, fleshy and plump, with a discreet structure. From a plot of vines planted in the 1950s and 60s, it has real concentration of raspberry fruit, spicy tannins and well-integrated new oak. 2013-2018

2008 Vosne-Romanée les Chaumes, Domaine Méo-Camuzet

B196 Case of 6 bottles

An open-knit and highly aromatic nose of liquorice, black cherry and rose leads to a richly textured palate, which has terrific length. 2013-2019

Domaine de Montille

An estate renowned for the astonishing quality of its wines and for their keeping potential. In addition to the wines from Volnay and Pommard for which the domaine is justifiably celebrated, de Montille has expanded its Côte de Beaune holdings to include two parcels each of Premier Cru Beaune and Grand Cru Corton. In addition, the Côte de Nuits now features on the list, with a Clos de Vougeot and two sensational cuvées of Vosne-Romanée Les Malconsorts being the brightest stars.

*RecommendationsAdrian Heaven recommends:Savigny-Lès-Beaune 1er Cru Les Lavières, Chandon de Briailles B072£198 - 12bts in bond

Firmly in the 'very pale coloured school of Burgundy' which belies the intensity and persistency of flavour. Elegant and with a pure fruit expression. Very much 'less is more' and ultimately a delicious wine.

2008 Volnay 1er Cru Les Taillepieds, Domaine de Montille B207£483 - 12bts in bond

For me, de Montille is one of the stars of the vintage. Perfumed and scented aromas with a refined, poised, natural and seemingly effortless palate. A wine of class built on an immaculate attention to detail. De Montille have once again raised the bar.

£348 in bond

Etienne de Montille describes this as the Grand Cru of Beaune. His parcel sits next to Enfant Jésus of Bouchard. This has a perfumed, intense nose of lavender and raspberry. In 2008, only a third of the bunches were de-stemmed, adding complexity and structure. With a lovely mouthfeel, this is a wine of great finesse. 2012-2018

2008 Nuits-St-Georges Aux-Saints-Juliens, Domaine de Montille

B205 Case of 12 bottles

£276 in bond

Pretty, feminine and pure, this is demonstrative of the Nuits style and speaks of the origins of this domaine. Very floral on the nose, with notes of rose, clove and raspberry. On the palate there is a subtle touch of orange cream, lovely grip and balance. A fantastic Pinot Noir. 2012-2016

2008 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru Thorey, Domaine de Montille

B205A Case of 12 bottles

£399 in bond

An exciting vineyard just above the 1er Crus of Chaignots and Bousselets, producing assertive, mineral wines, with a spicy edge. This has an expressive nose of cassis, roasted meat and vanilla. The palate is juicy, with fine grained tannins and a stony character. 2013-2018

2008 Volnay 1er Cru Les Mitans, Domaine de Montille

B206 Case of 12 bottles

£486 in bond

B206A Case of 3 magnums

£267 in bond

Aromatically similar to the 1978 according to M. de Montille. Certainly very aromatic with parma violet and hedgerow fruit notes. Very fine and elegant on the palate, like the 1993 apparently. Certainly not bad vintages with which to be compared. 2012-2017

2008 Volnay 1er Cru Les Taillepieds, Domaine de Montille

B207 Case of 12 bottles

£483 in bond

B207A Case of 3 magnums

£273 in bond

B207B Case of 1 double magnum

£200 in bond

A fantastic vineyard, whose name apparently comes from the small stones, which used to cut vineyard workers feet. They received some hail in 2008 which drastically reduced yields. This has a very mineral style with beefier tannins than the Mitans. Precise, pure and serious Volnay that will need time. 2013-2019

2008 Pommard 1er Cru Les Pézerolles, Domaine de Montille

B208 Case of 12 bottles

£468 in bond

B208A Case of 3 magnums

£267 in bond

Not de-stemmed at all for the 2008 vintage as Etienne searched for even more complexity from the ripe stems. Developing nose of very ripe strawberry fruit, with spicy notes and a good weight. This has a creamy texture and is very persistent. This is a very good vineyard in extremely capable hands! 2013-2018

2008 Pommard 1er Cru Les Rugiens, Domaine de Montille **

B209 Case of 12 bottles

£630 in bond

B209A Case of 3 magnums

£339 in bond

B209B Case of 1 double magnum

£249 in bond

From the 'Bas' part of Rugiens, where the red iron-oxide/clay soil give wines of power and elegance. Rumours abound that Rugiens is being considered for promotion to Grand Cru status. This is a masculine, spicy wine, which manages to be dense, fresh and subtle. A great wine of which Etienne is justifiably proud. 2015-2020

2008 Corton Clos du Roi Grand Cru, Domaine de Montille **

B210 Case of 6 bottles

£321 in bond

B210A Case of 3 magnums

£360 in bond

B210B Case of 1 double magnum

£259 in bond

Domaine de Montille's parcel is in the lower part of this great vineyard near the road and, therefore, just opposite Bressandes. A very expressive wine, with notes of Christmas spice, flowers, red fruit and woodsmoke. Real density and vineyard concentration on the palate, with an intense, lively finish. The wines of Corton are undervalued and, in the right hands, every bit as fine as the best of the Côtes de Nuits. 2014-2019

2008 Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru, Domaine de Montille **

B211 Case of 6 bottles

£372 in bond

Big, burly Grand Cru, which will need time to find itself. There are notes of grilled herbs, cinnamon and black fruits on the nose. The palate is spicy, tannic and brooding, with a mineral streak and long oaky finish. 2015-2020

Moret-Nomine

Moret-Nominé is a micro-négociant, making wines from a mixture of grapes sourced from their own vineyards and those selected from other producers. The fruit that is selected is of the highest quality and grown according to specified principles, such as low yields and the use of organic fertilisers. The resultant wines are concentrated and rich, demonstrating enticing complexity.

White Wines

2008 Auxey-Duresses, Moret-Nomine

B220 Case of 12 bottles
£147 in bond

Auxey-Duresses tucked away to the west of Meursault and hiding behind the Montagne de Bourdon can offer some of the best value white wines in the Cote. The soil is Argovian limestone, which provides the delicacy and finesse. This has a restrained palate, subtle but long. Fresh acidity adds a slight citrus zest to the finish. This is delicious but for the near term. 2011-2015

2008 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières, Moret-Nomine

B221 Case of 12 bottles
£438 in bond

At 16 or so hectares the largest Premier Cru in Puligny-Montrachet and fortuitously it shares a similar altitude and soil composition as Grand Cru Chevalier-Montrachet. This is a fullish broad wine. Slightly buttery but with gentle acidity and good intensity. There is some structure here, but it is covered by the depth of the fruit. One can see a trace of the Chevalier style here with the weight and volume. 2012-2016

2008 Meursault 1er Cru Les Charmes, Moret-Nomine

B222 Case of 12 bottles
£426 in bond

The largest 1er Cru vineyard in Meursault and bigger than both Perrières and Genevrières combined. This is a typical Charmes with its plump aspect, a soft fruit character to the palate, almost a floral touch. This has a broad aspect with good but soft acidity and a fullish finish. Very good but for the near term. 2012-2017

Domaine Georges Mugneret-Gibourg

Marie-Christine and Marie-Andrée Mugneret run this Vosne-Romanée estate with great flair, dedication and style. Sophistication, refinement and elegance are words that trip off the tongue easily here. As is the norm in this cellar, freshness and structure are in seamless harmony whilst the domaine's intelligent use of new oak (30% for villages, 45% for Premier Cru and 70% for the estate's Grand Cru cuvées) creates a perfect equilibrium with the fruit.

Red Wines

2008 Vosne-Romanée, Georges Mugneret-Gibourg

B231 Case of 12 bottles
£294 in bond

A blend of five different parcels located in La Columbière, Champs Goudins and Le Pré de la Folie. A lively and detailed nose leads through to pure flavours of red and black currants with a subtle touch of minerality. Delicate, silky tannins create a sleek texture that culminates in an elegant and lengthy finish. A villages of superior quality to its rank. 2012-2017

2008 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru Les Chaignots, Georges Mugneret-Gibourg

B232 Case of 12 bottles
£399 in bond

"Chaignots" comes from the word 'chasne', old French for chêne (oak), meaning that there were originally oak trees in this area. This was one of the most impressive Nuits we tasted. Intense ripe, black cherry fruit with notes of clove and anise. Full, round flavours and ripe, chewy tannins crescendo into a generous and mouth staining finish. 2013-2018

2008 Chambolle-Musigny 1er Cru Les Feusselottes, Georges Mugneret-Gibourg

B233 Case of 12 bottles
£459 in bond

The name "Feusselottes" indicates land formed by little depressions which can be seen in this parcel of vines. A perfumed and delicate nose of violets and sweet spice. Freshening acidity, sappy redcurrant flavours and pebbly notes give this wine a lovely vibrancy on the palate. This is very Chambolle in style on both the nose, the silken tannins on the palate and the long, balanced finish. 2012-2018

2008 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru, Georges Mugneret-Gibourg

B234 Case of 6 bottles
£276 in bond

From vines planted in the year 2000 within Ruchottes-Chambertin, vinified separately to produce a slightly lighter more sappy style to the official Grand Cru. Restrained, mineral nose with a cool sense of ripeness to the pure red berry fruit. Firm, slightly dusty tannins add structure to the mid-weight body. Excellent balance, followed by a highly elegant and mineral finish. 2012-2016

White Wines

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet Blanc, J-M Pillot

B240 Case of 12 bottles

£249 in bond

Blended from young vines and several different terroirs in Chassagne, this is wonderful expression of the vintage. Expressive and floral, with grapefruit and toast. The palate is plump, with lovely balance and persistence. 2011-2015

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Caillerets, J-M Pillot

B241 Case of 12 bottles

£348 in bond

Jean-Marc's parcel lies towards the bottom of this distinguished vineyard, which produces some of the finest wines in Chassagne. With a chalky nose of grapefruit and toast. Palate is serious and stylish with lemony grip and well judged new oak. 2012-2016

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Chenevottes, J-M Pillot

B242 Case of 12 bottles

£348 in bond

Serious Premier Cru Chassagne from this talented winemaker. Still closed on the nose, with suggestions of smoke and grilled nuts. In the mouth, it is lean and tightly wound, with steely acidity and a core of ripe fruit. This needs time, but will be very good indeed. 2012-2018

2008 Puligny-Montrachet, Les Noyers Brets, J-M Pillot

B243 Case of 12 bottles

£258 in bond

Aromatic lively nose of fresh, green herbs and lime. The palate is medium bodied, with good lift and a long grippy finish. With a highly charged nose of liquid minerals, anise and yellow plum, the palate is steely, refined and rich with impeccable balance. 2012-2016

Red Wine

2008 Chassagne-Montrachet Rouge 1er Cru Clos-St-Jean, J-M Pillot

B244 Case of 12 bottles

£336 in bond

The Vosne-Romanée (1er Cru!) of the Côte de Beaune according to Jean-Marc Pillot. Fabulous Pinot Noir; with vibrant raspberry and crushed cherry fruit, old vine concentration and a silky texture. 2012-2018

Maison Roche de Bellene

Nicolas Potel's wines have been a feature of the Lay & Wheeler Burgundy portfolio for many years, as were his father's before them. They have been synonymous with great quality and impressive value for money and have enjoyed a loyal following among our clients. This year, Nicolas parted company with the business that bears his name and decided to pursue his new venture, Domaine and Maison Roche de Bellene. Aside from winemaking, one of the key skills in any negociant is the ability to source high quality fruit and Nicolas has always been able to access very fine fruit for his wines, from villages all the way up to Grand Cru level. The majority of the growers with whom Nicolas worked at Maison Nicolas Potel have followed him to this new project and so the high quality that we have come to expect from Nicolas' wines remains unchanged.

Suchots produces some of the best wines in Vosne-Romanée, sharing soil profile with Romanée-St-Vivant and La Romanée Conti. Powerful, seductive and with amazing balance, it is spicy, with notes of crushed raspberry and iron. The tannins are firm, but sweet, and lead to a long finish. 2011-2017

2008 Bonnes-Mares Grand Cru, Maison Roche de Bellene

B289 Case of 6 bottles

Nicolas has always regarded Bonnes-Mares as among his finest wines and nothing has changed in the 2008 vintage. Rich and concentrated, with a satin-like texture, this has real presence. With ripe, firm tannins and a long, complex finish, it is a terrific example of this lovely vintage. 2014-2021

2008 Chambertin Clos de Bèze, Maison Roche de Bellene

B291 Case of 6 bottles

£549 in bond

Very concentrated, slightly menthol, edge to the nose. The palate is dense and complicated with bitter-sweet, tarry red fruits, overlaid by a violet florality. The exceptionally velvety texture of the mid-palate is gracefully concluded by a firm, yet well-judged and long, finish. 2014-2021

2008 Chambertin Grand Cru, Maison Roche de Bellene

B292 Case of 6 bottles

£564 in bond

Unusual, flinty nose, with notes of iron filings, spicy black fruit and new oak. The palate is dense and complete, with blueberry and a long tarry finish. Demonstrates the individuality of this great Grand Cru beautifully. 2014-2022

Simon Larkin MW recommends:

2008 Gevrey-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Humbert Frères B151

£198 - 12bts in bond

Manou Humbert is a remarkably fine winemaker. His wines never lack freshness or ripeness; they reveal a finely judged balanced and remain true to their origin. I was particularly impressed with his Gevrey-Chambertin, Vieilles-Vignes, which showed the volume and class of a Premier Cru at, to my mind, a very keen price. Gevrey should offer dark fruit, a meaty savoury nuance and a certain solidity and this is exactly what this 2008 does. I have no doubt that we could spend weeks in Burgundy trying to find a better value Gevrey than this.

2008 Bourgogne Aligoté, Michel Bouzereau B050

£69 - 12bts in bond

Bouzereau has enjoyed a fine vintage – we spend time praising his superb generous Meursault and often overlook his humble Aligoté, which for me is one of the better examples I have tasted from this variety. Lively, fresh and streamlined, with mouthwatering fruit and terrific leesy complexity, this wine will reward short-term cellarage. Aligoté has a lot to offer, particularly when made in such a restrained manner. This is something of a staple for me – I am a regular buyer of a case or two.

Buying En Primeur An Explanation of Terminology

"En Primeur" is a French wine trade term for wine which is sold as a "future" i.e. prior to being bottled and for delivery at a future date.

En Primeur wines are usually offered one or two years after the vintage. In the case of Bordeaux, the campaign occurs in the spring following the harvest, and in the case of Burgundy, two years after. These are the two main regions which offer their wines prior to bottling but there are also en primeur campaigns for the top wines of the Rhone, Tuscany, Piedmont and Port in declared vintages.

Customers pay the opening in bond price as soon as the wine is offered on the market and the wine is shipped in spring or autumn, one or two years later, depending on the release policy of the respective regions.

Buying In Bond An Explanation of Terminology

Buying in bond allows you to defer the payment of duty and VAT on your wine until such a time as you wish to have the wine delivered.

Wines purchased in bond can be cellared in Lay & Wheeler's customer reserves cellar at Vinothèque in Burton-upon-Trent, where they will be stored in optimum conditions until you wish to withdraw them.

When you decide to take delivery of the wines you are required to pay the prevailing rate of UK duty and VAT, and the prevailing post-shipment carriage rate.
